HYMENEAL.

MacBarney-Royce.

The wedding of Miss Eleanor Billings Royce and Elgin Lockman MacBarney, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Royce, No. 9 Highland avenue, Wednesday evening, was one of the most brilliant affairs in Middletown's social history. There may have been weddings in Middletown that were as pretty, but the general verdict of Middletown society is that there never was one that was prettier or more perfect in every detail.

The house was beautifully decorated by Bartholomew. The prevailing colors were pink and white, and chrysanthemums, roses and carnations with a wealth of vases were used with rare effect. Plants and potted plants, banded here and there, completed the interior decoration while the enclosed veranda was made a bower of beauty by the tasteful use of bright hued autumn leaves.

Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party entered the parlor. First came the ushers, Fred Gubelman, Dr. McLaughlin and James Price, of Jersey City, and Herbert B. Royce, brother of the bride; then the maid of honor, Miss Edith C. Royce, the bride's sister; then came the fair bride, who never looked more charming, leaning on her father's arm. The bridegroom attended by his brother, Ed. MacBarney, of Atlanta, Ga., had entered through another door and met his bride under a shower of smiles on the north side of the parlor, under which they stood while Dr. Gordon, the bride's pastor, pronounced the solemn words that made them man and wife.

Hearty congratulations followed the ceremony, after which the bridal party led the way to the dining room where refreshments were served by Day, of Newark.

The bride, who is one of Middletown's fairest daughters, was beautiful in her rich bridal gown of white broad-cloth, trimmed with pearl passementerie and point lace. Her veil was laced with lilies of the valley and she carried a beautiful shower bouquet of the same flowers. Her traveling dress was a tailor-made suit of broadcloth, made with Russian blouse and trimmed with black braid. She wore a hat to match her suit, trimmed with brown velvet and a very beautiful bird.

The maid of honor wore white organdy over white silk and carried a bouquet of bridesmaid's roses. The bride's mother wore a rich costume of black velvet, trimmed with point and Dubesse lace. Her jewels were diamonds. She carried a beautiful bouquet of orchids, the gift of the groom.

The bride was the recipient of a magnificent collection of beautiful and costly wedding gifts. The groom's favors to the best man and ushers were pearl scarves. The bride's gift to the maid of honor was an amethyst pendant.

Fine music was furnished by Collins, Berg and Bright, and to its soothing strains the younger guests danced on the broad veranda.

Mr. and Mrs. MacBarney left on the Wells-Fargo Express for New York city. They will visit Old Point Comfort and other southern points, and on their return from their wedding journey will take up their residence at 52 Sunnyside avenue, Jersey City.

A brilliant company of relatives and friends were present at the wedding and among them were the following guests from out of town:

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. MacBarney and family, Miss Maud MacBarney; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Dickson and family; Miss Agnes Dickson; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, of Jersey City.

W. D. Downs, of Denver.
Fred R. Conzleton, Charles W. Person, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hartford, J. D. Beakes, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bjornson and daughter; W. H. Wheeler and daughter; Charles Wheeler, Miss Harriet A. Wheeler, of Florida.

Mrs. Ella W. Chase and daughter, of Lockport.

Mrs. Thos. R. Hart, of Passaic, N. J.
Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Salmon, of Port Jervis.

Ed. Hartford, of Orange, N. J.

Mrs. Vanamose, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Townsend, of Newburgh.

Miss Harriet Himes, of Troy.

Mrs. MacBarney has always been a social favorite in Middletown, and her attractive personality, brilliant attainments, estimable qualities and charm of manner have won her a large circle of devoted friends. Mr. MacBarney is a lawyer who already commands a large practice. Nothing higher need be said in his praise than that his memory was worthy of the bride he has won, who takes with her to her new home the heartiest good wishes of hosts of friends for prosperity, long life and happiness for her and hers.

SAVED A CHILD'S LIFE

Barney Padien, a New York Division Engineer, is the Hero.

From the Port Jervis Union.
As Engineer Barney Padien, of the New York Division, was pulling out of the Erie yard in this village, about 12:30 Wednesday, a young negro child ran across the track immediately in front of the engine.

The little one seemed entirely non-placed at the approach of the engine and was unable to get out of the way. Engineer Padien sounded all the ordinary warning signals, but the child paid no heed to them and he was struck by the pilot of the engine. Engineer Padien reversed the engine and applied the brakes and succeeded in stopping the locomotive before its cruel wheels passed over the child. It was a moment in which a cool head served well and the life of a little innocent was spared.

BIG FIRE AT MILO.

The Paper Mill's Barn and Store House Burned, This Morning—A House Saved With Difficulty—The Fire of Mysterious Origin—Five Tons of Paper Burned.

The sharp barking of a pet dog belonging to William Verdon, at Milo, awakened the latter about 12:30 this morning, and looking out of the window he discovered the three-story barn and store house of the Diamond Paper Co. a blaze. He threw on a few clothes and running to the shed adjoining the main building, released the seven horses stabled there.

The blaze was seen by the engineer of the paper mill and he blew an alarm on his whistle which alarmed the neighborhood and was heard by many in this city.

The blaze which started from some unaccountable cause in the hay mow soon spread through the building. The heat was intense and the men who responded to the alarm had difficulty in getting out several of the heavy wagons used in doing the paper mill's carting.

The building in which the fire originated was formerly used as a grist mill. It stood three and a-half stories high and was joined at the easterly and westerly ends by stable sheds and wagon sheds. The easterly shed was but a dozen feet from Mr. Verdon's house, and his wife and two children were quickly removed to a place of safety on a leverything movable was taken from the house. Then a ladder was thrown to the roof and David W. Hulse sat astride the ridge pole and poured water over the roof and side toward the fire as the flames steadily approached it. A bucket gang worked unceasingly until the danger was passed and the house saved.

The barn and the buildings connected with it and their contents were burned to the ground. In the building were two top wagons, one belonging to Col. Thompson, and a fine sleigh belonging to Mr. Verdon.

Five tons of finished paper, valued at $500, four tons of stock, valued at $160, a quantity of machinery, and the winter's hay and straw were destroyed.

The foundation walls held a mass of burning paper this morning when an Arcos reporter looked over the scene. Tall trees were cleared of their bark as clean as a shaver would have done it. The flames adjoining were lined with domestic articles, and ended upon a half-burned quilt was the initial dog which gave the drama.

The mill, an eighth of a mile away, has fine hose laid out to protect it from fire but there was not enough of it to reach the scene of this morning's blaze. Ross Moran who was in charge of the mill, stated that no one had been in the barn after 9 p. m., when Bodie Hulse, a teamster, put up his horse.

Case & Taylor have $2,575 insurance on the property, placed in the Liverpool, London & Globe and Commercial Union. The loss will all be covered by insurance.

THE PRIZE BABY KILLED.

Toddled in Front of a Newburgh Electric Car and Was Run Over.

Martin Garrahan, the three-year-old son of James Garrahan, of No. 37 South Cobden street, was struck and instantly killed by a trolley car on Renwick street, Newburgh, Wednesday evening. His mother had put him down to range the baby carriage and he toddled in front of the car.

The boy won first prize at the baby show at the Orange County Fair two years ago.

PORT JERVIS ELECTRIC RAILROAD

The Issue of $70,000 of Bonds Authorized—Ex-Senator Richardson Elected a Director.

The Port Jervis Electric Railroad Company at a meeting, Tuesday evening, authorized the issue of $70,000 of bonds. It is understood that they have all been placed in New York city and this county.

Ex-Senator W. P. Richardson, of Goshen, was elected a director in place of J. P. Marsh, of Port Jervis, who resigned from the Board.

The company has purchased of L. C. Senger a vacant lot on Ball street, near the Monroville railroad, as a site for its power house.

BROUGHT DOWN TWO DEER.

E. Madden Decker's Party Had a Fine Week in Pike County Wood.

E. Madden Decker, who was one of a dozen hunters of this city, Port Jervis and New York, returned from Pike county, Wednesday night. The party had grand hunting, bringing down two deer and all the birds they wanted.

The law forbids the taking of deer from Pike county so the hunters lived on their game during the week.

Burglars in Port Jervis.

Burglars entered the residence of J. Wallace Gordon, in Port Jervis, Tuesday night and ransacked it thoroughly, stealing a quantity of bric-a-brac, plated ware and a few articles of solid silver. It is possible that other plunder was secured.

The residence of Benjamin Farnum was also entered, early Tuesday evening, during the absence of the family. Some plated ware, jewelry and other articles of considerable value were taken.

Perhaps They Won't Be There.

It is quite likely that the Hon. Louis Bedell and William George Targart will not attend the meeting of the Manner chor, to-night. The publication of the "date" by the Argus has frightened them off.

But the beer will be there.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

—There have been a couple of cigar vendors in town recently who make it "do" the people. Their method of operation is to first call on a person and tender him gratis a fine hand made Cuban cigar. After he has smoked it, a box is offered him at a remarkably low figure. The cigars in the box are made of skunk cabbage or worse and smell like a burning garbage pile. The time of the cigars preceded the men and their profits at Goshen were small.

—The blaze from the fire at Milo, near New Hampton, was plainly visible at Goshen, this morning. Several members of both Bkeman and Cataract hose companies were at their headquarters awaiting an alarm. The blaze seemed to be somewhere in the vicinity of River-souville. Inquiry at the tower elicited the fact that the fire was at New Hampton. The blaze was also visible as far down the road as Monroe, as the operator in the tower there asked Goshen if there was a fire here.

HOW TO VOTE A SPLIT TICKET

The Attorney General says the legal manner of voting a split ticket is:

"Marking a cross in the circle at the head of a column votes the whole ticket, unless the voter places a cross in the square at the left of a name in some other column."

"If a voter marks a cross at the left side of any name on any other column, that mark takes the preference for that name and votes over the column marked only with a cross in the circle."

"The voter may leave the circle unmarked, and mark in the squares at the left of any name he desires to vote, and then none other will count."

Cases on the Calendar of the Trial Term of the Supreme Court to be held at Newburgh, Next Week.

The calendar for the full term of the Supreme Court to be held at Newburgh, next week, by Hon. M. H. Hirschberg, is an unusually large one. It contains 141 cases, 16 of which are on the preferred calendar and the remainder on the general calendar.

There are not the usual number of railroad cases, for owing to the absence in Europe of Hon. Henry Bacon, the Erie's counsel, all the actions against the Erie, with one exception, seem to have been put over the term and do not appear on the calendar. The one Erie case is Chas. S. Satterlee vs. McCallough and others, receivers.

There are six actions against the Lehigh and Hudson, the plaintiffs in which are B. H. Givens, adm.; Nellie Sisco, adm.; Caroline C. O'Neill, adm.; Mary A. Cooper, adm.; James Lawler; Alice M. Sloan, adm.

The P. J. M. and N. Y. R. R. Co. is defendant in three cases, the plaintiffs in which are Patrick Doyle, adm.; Benj. C. Swartwout and James P. Seybolt.

The N. Y. O. and U. I. R. R. has four cases to defend, the plaintiffs being Wm. L. Weber, Thos. F. Penney, T. F. Purcell and T. J. Flood.

Catherine Ostrom, adm., has a suit against the O. and W. and Joseph Edall, one against The New England R. R. Co.

The bursting of the Melzenbach reservoir dam is recalled by ten suits against the Fishkill and Matteawan Water Company, brought by Newburgh attorneys, who evidently preferred to try their luck with Orange rather than Dutchess county juries.

The banks of the county furnish a number of cases: Highland National Bank of Newburgh, vs. Heterograph Mfg. Co. and another; C. H. Masten vs. Highland National Bank; Port Jervis National Bank vs. Mary Donnell and another; First National Bank of Middletown, vs. C. B. Redhead et al; same vs. Joseph A. Devere et al; same vs. Hoik D. Campbell et al; Columbus Trust Co. vs. Elmina Adams et al.

There are three suits against Newburgh city, the plaintiffs being Wesley Wait; Newburgh Electric R. R. Co.; Edson L. Clark vs. the Board of Education of that city.

Other cases of local or general interest are: James Atkins vs. Port Jervis Gazette Co.; Ann Murray vs. Village of Port Jervis; Mary Allen vs. Press Publishing Co. (New York World) two actions; Chas. A. Stanton vs. Paul Purps, (for alienation of wife's affection); J. A. Gross vs. Alanson Hallock; F. W. Vaughan and another vs. Bridget Moran and another; Frederick Kane vs. Middletown Ice Co.; Peter Nugent vs. Adam W. Beakes; Sheriff, D. L. Ackerman vs. Grant B. Taylor, R. A. Sayer vs. L. B. Scott; Ralph Warner vs. Conrad Schopp; C. W. Hill vs. Wallkill Valley Electric Light and Power Co.; People of the State of New York vs. W. H. Ellis; same vs. T. Queney and another; D. T. Wood vs. J. W. F. Rittenberg, (Newburgh Telegram libel suit); Birdsie Young vs. Theo. Santoro and another; R. R. Lums vs. D. H. Thompson and another; Eber L. Brown vs. James B. Clark.

Charles Weber is the boss litigant of the county, being the plaintiff in twenty suits, and Sidney Bell is a good second, being plaintiff in eleven suits.

MANAGEMENT AT ORANGE FARM

From the Independent Republican

When a Democratic Board of Supervisors was in charge of affairs at Orange Farm the county's property was intelligently and capably cultivated. The inventory of 1892 showed 2,500 bushels of potatoes in stock and in 1893 there were 2,200 bushels when the inventory was taken, November 1. How many bushels of potatoes are now on hand at Orange Farm? The Superintendents found it necessary last year, when the crop was an unusually large one elsewhere, to buy potatoes for use at the clinic house, and there is no reason to doubt that they will have to spend some of the taxpayers' money for potatoes this year. A change in this wisely managed institution can't be made until the time to make it is on the horizon, and the time to elect a Superintendent and the Board of Supervisors is at hand. The Democratic nominees are:

New York City Dealers Advance Prices

The Milk Dealers' Association of New York and vicinity held its monthly meeting, Wednesday afternoon, at the New York Mercantile Exchange, owing to the scarcity of milk in some of the producing districts it was decided to charge 2½ cents a gallon increase on the present market price of cream milk. It was also said that a further increase would in all probability be decided upon at the next meeting in November.

THE LAST SAD RITES.

Many Friends Attend the Funeral of the Late Joseph F. Robinson.

Funeral services over the remains of Joseph F. Robinson were held at his late residence, No. 134 West Main street, at 8 o'clock last evening. The house was crowded with friends who assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the deceased. The officiating clergymen were Rev. Dr. F. L. Wilson, of St. Paul's M. E. Church, and Rev. Dr. W. A. Robinson, of the First Congregational Church. A quartette from St. Paul's choir sang several appropriate hymns.

The remains were taken to Greenwood cemetery, this morning, for interment. A small party of friends accompanied them.

SURPRISE PARTIES.

Uninvited but Welcome Guests Take Possession of Two Houses.

TO THE VOTERS OF ORANGE COUNTY

As a candidate for Coroner, I take this method of asking my friends, regardless of politics, for their support. (Knowing that it is impossible to pay them all a personal visit.) My opponent, who is running for a third term, should give way, as there are other people on earth who wish for the little benefit that may accrue from the office of Coroner.

I wish through your valuable paper to make a special appeal to the German voters of Orange county to stand by me in this contest.

MORE TROUBLE IN THE FIRST.

"Val" Powell Won't Have "Jim" Brazee "Monkeying" in His Ward.

There is another fight on in the ranks of the First Ward Republicans, and the "gung" is again in "the dumps." "Val" Powell, who was turned down by ex-Mayor Stansbury when he handled the boodle, and who was resuscitated by James B. Carson and "Ed" Tompkins, is on the war path. He won't have "Jim" Brazee working in the ward and he is backed heartily by the would-be-boss, Scott Cook. He has sent word to the Big Boss Tompkins that Brazee must be hauled out of the ward despite Bedell's orders, or he'll throw his "power" for the Democratic ticket.

Democrats need not anticipate any great gains if he should, however, as "Val" is as defunct a boss as the deposed Cook. The voters are laughing at both of them, and listening to "Jim" Brazee, who is telling them that he is for Bedell only and they can vote the rest of the ticket as they see fit.

A FAITHFUL SERVANT.

Cornelius Barton, a Former Slave, Always Tends Door When Members of the MacBurney Family Marry.

It may be of interest to mention that the colored man who was at the door at the Royce-MacBurney wedding, Wednesday night, Cornelius Barton by name, was born in slavery and was one of 557 slaves owned by Mr. MacBurney's father, who resided at Macon, Ga., before the war. Barton came North with the family, who were obliged to leave the South because sentiments were in favor of the Union and has been in the service of the family ever since. He is very proud of the fact that he has "tended door" at the wedding of every member of the family who has been married.

WOMAN'S PROGRESS IN JAPAN.

The Emperor and the Empress Both Believers in Modern Ideas.

At last the women of Japan are beginning to get their footing. The emperor himself is interested in their advancement. He hopes in time that they will attain the same position enjoyed by the women of Europe and America. The first step he took toward this advancement was to abolish stained teeth and shaved eyebrows. Next, on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his marriage he introduced the idea of the celebration of a silver wedding into his country. On this occasion he gave a big feast and received countless presents. His female subjects were delighted at this, and said that no empress had ever been so honored, says the New York Sun.

The empress of Japan, Fusaka, is by no means kept in the background by her husband. She shares his throne, and is consulted on matters of national importance. More than this, she presides at his table, and this is an honor accorded to none of her predecessors. The empress, from all accounts, is quite an up-to-date woman, and has proven herself worthy of all her privileges. She is an active patroness of the Tokio women's hospital, which is conducted on the most modern scientific principles. She is also quite an athlete, and has a model gymnasium, erected solely for her benefit, in the palace. She practices there every day, and is also fond of riding. Who knows but in time she may take to the bicycle? The emperor has dedicated to her many of his most beautiful poems, which show that the bravest deeds have been inspired by feminine beauty. She is even more interested in the advancement of her sex than he is.

ONLY WOMAN'S THEATER.

Paris is Building the First of Its Kind in the World.

Women of every country hereafter will be at liberty to defend their interests, assert their privileges and air their grievances through the medium of the drama or the opera, for Paris is building the first and only woman's theater in the world. It is to be devoted solely to the interests of women, and has its site next to the Women's club known as the Cercle Pigalle, near Montmartre, says the Detroit Free Press.

The only weak spot about the affair is that the manager is a mere man. This is disappointing. So long, however, as he is willing to do the drudgery and let honor and glory go to the lot of the women it does not very much signify; and, moreover, it is provided in the agreement that he shall take his instructions from the executive committee of the board of directors, which is composed of five women. He must be a wonderful man. At present he has succeeded in placing the entire board. Mme. Loery, who will direct the foreign department, is very confident as to its future. Hereafter, she says, the fact that a play was written by a woman has been sufficient in most instances to condemn it; but this sort of thing is to end, and women are to have precedence over men in at least one theater. Man, however, will be graciously listened to in the event of his writing plays or operas which bear on the subject of woman's rights, and he is promised a fair and unprejudiced criticism. Nationality is no bar.

Day's Variance in Weight.

Have you ever tried this experiment of weighing yourself in the morning and again in the evening? It is one of the best ways, so doctors say, of finding whether your health is good or not. If you are thoroughly well there should be a difference of more than two or three ounces either way in the 12 hours. If you lose or gain as much as eight ounces, you should immediately consult a doctor, while the gain or loss of a pound indicates you are on the verge of serious illness. This, of course, does not apply to one just recovering from illness, for convalescents who have been much reduced may sometimes gain 15 to 20 ounces a day.
